

DALEK ATTACK LEVELS 1 & 2

Save London from those pepperpots with an attitude with our essential guide to first two levels.

Hostage plus Dalek.

When you've got all your hostages this is where you've got to get in. Go through and you'll face the end-of-level battle.

START
HERE

Dalek gun, energy and a Dalek. Both doors lead to the same room (even though there's an alleyway between them).

Hostage and a cop plus a bomb.

A small robot type thing that takes a couple of hits. Don't go in here.

You can't get through this (whatever it is). You have to go through the Underground system to get to the other side.

LEVEL 1

The first level, a flight through the London sewers on hover pads, is not, it has to be admitted, difficult. Your best bet if you just want to complete the level and not pile up the points is to fly along the top firing all the time until you get to the end-of-level, er, thingy. He, she or it takes about 20 hits to kill.

DOOR C

DOOR D

DOOR E

DOOR F

Through here is a long room filled with enemies, but you've got to make it, and you'll find a few hostages. There are two of them plus a Dalek gun through the first door on the left. Two more hostages plus some bombs and a cop. The hostages are hidden at the end of the room.

Wanna cheat? Then you've got it. If you want top skip to the next level press both SHIFT keys simultaneously anytime during a level. Then press P to pause. Keep P pressed while you press and release the asterisk key. Couldn't be simpler! (Yes it could!) -- Edj
For Action Replay cartridge owners here's the POKE for infinite lives: POKE 4575,165
POKE 13375,165

The spy on the left's Level Two's big hassle. He takes around 20 shots to blast to smithereens.

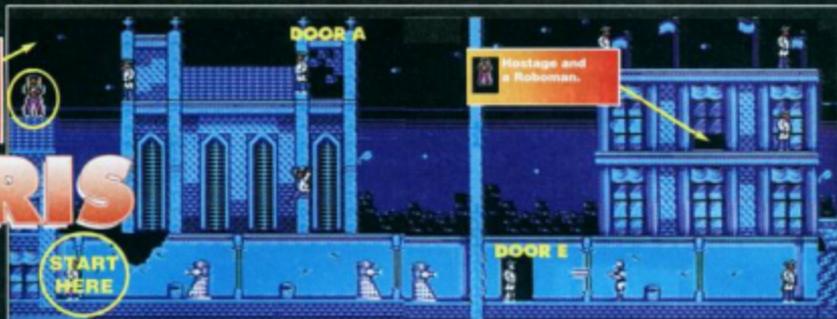

THOSE LEVELS

DALEK ATTACK

There's a power-up for your sonic screwdriver here. Get it by jumping up some invisible steps.

PARIS

Don't go in here whenever you do - there's no point and you will regret it, I promise you.

Hostage, heavy weapons Dalek and a sonic screwdriver power-up.

Hostage and an Irato Roboman.

Hostage and flying robot.

NEW YORK

Once you've got all the hostages it's through here to the end-of-level baddie.

Hostage.

Hostage.

Just one lonely old Dalek. Don't go in to keep him company.

Blast this a few times.

Two sonic screwdriver power-ups and two robots.

PART 2

Having defeated the dastardly dustbins in London, the Doctor now has to face the Daleks in Paris and New York. To help you help him, Dave has put together some street maps that are much more useful than any old A to Z.
